>>CANVASSING OPINION

Deckchairs – a seasonal seating feature for decades – are making a comeback. The new loungers are artworks in the garden. Just practise your entry and exit.

>>A CLOTHES THING When a wardrobe's not enough, the new must-have in your ensuite bedroom is a dressing room. Don't precious threads deserve a home of their own.

>>ANIMAL MAGNETISM

Maybe it's the Rio effect but exotic animals are appearing everywhere from flamingoes and monkeys to all-over prints see Graham & Green's Jungle animal cocoon chair. Crazy and comfy!

>>MOOD INDIGO When the sun is shining it's not easy to contemplate winter... but designers are asking you to embrace cosy and enveloping dark interiors.

>>FIFTY SHADES...

Delightful when pristine, so hotel chic – but oh so prone to make up smears, dirty little fingers etc. Going grey is just inevitable.

>>ODOUR OH DEAR You get what you pay for. There's nothing quite so pleasant as a waft of luxurious scent in a room and nothing quite so unpleasant as the sickly smell of a cheap scented candle.

>>SPACIAL AWARENESS

Is opening up the only way for the modern family to coexist? When every ground floor of every home in south west London looks the same. What's new?

>>NOT A HOOT Those cute little owls are still roosting in interiors shops. Tu-whit-tu-why?
